THE BENEFITS OF THE CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY

Accomplish your priorities: Financial security in retirement and support for Sidwell Friends School

Life is full of competing priorities. Often the things we want to do don't coordinate with what we know we need to do. If you are in or approaching retirement, you know that one priority is making sure you have enough income in retirement. Yet, you may also want to continue your support of favorite charities such as Sidwell Friends School. Saving for retirement and charitable giving don't have to be competing priorities. Enter the Sidwell Friends charitable gift annuity! Consider achieving two of your priorities at once - both retirement income and charitable support.

The benefits of establishing a charitable gift annuity

A charitable gift annuity with Sidwell Friends School is simple. You make a gift to Sidwell Friends of cash or appreciated securities, and Sidwell Friends agrees to pay up to two individuals - most commonly you and your spouse - a fixed income for life. The payments never fluctuate and are not affected by changes in the economy or financial markets. Sidwell Friends School will give you a simple agreement for your records. Then just wait for the payments. In return for your gift, you will get an income tax charitable deduction for a portion of your gift. In almost every case some of your annuity payments will be partially tax-free for a time. Two priorities accomplished - additional retirement income and generous support for Sidwell Friends School.
